To Our Valued Customers:

All bagged materials required/ordered by customers will be charged the standard to a stock pallet.

Some examples are:

- Pre-lotting Premix ColorTek or base and box specifically for the home/lot being built.
- Adding a bag of material to a stock pallet of base.
- Ordering a short pallet of material.

In general, any manipulation required or designated by the buyer to a stock pallet quantity will be billed as a CDA fee. This service fee is billed as "CDA Fee". Currently, the CDA Fee is $16.25 per pallet and will increase to $17.06 effective January 1, 2024.

Other fees that will apply:

A shorts:

This includes job lotting of premix ColorTek or base and box. One example of this would be a job lot request to place 2 bags of ColorTek Base with its corresponding ColorTek on one pallet. In this scenario, a short pallet fee would be $32.50 per lot. Not $32.50 plus the $16.25 CDA fee. A short pallet fee will be billed and referred to as (SP) fee. The current SP fee is $32.50 and will increase to $33.50 effective January 1, 2024.

Attached hereto is the list of commonly stocked bags of material that will be affected.
